Based on NGA Model Code of Conduct © National Governance Association 2025

Scope

This Code of Conduct applies to all Members, Trustees and Governors of the Potteries Educational Trust. Members, Trustees and Governors will act in accordance with the Trust's Articles of Association to fulfil the objects of the organisation.

Trustees agree to follow the charity governance code. Governors recognise and support the principles set out in the charity governance code.

All Members, Trustees and Governors of the Potteries Educational Trust agree to follow the Seven Principles of Public Life (also known as the Nolan Principles – published 31 May 1995) and the Framework for Ethical Leadership in Education.

- Selflessness - We will act solely in terms of the public interest.
- Integrity - We will avoid placing ourselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence us in our work. We will not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for ourselves, our family, or our friends. We will declare and resolve any interests and relationships.
- Objectivity - We will act and take decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias.
- Accountability - We are accountable to the public for our decisions and actions and will submit ourselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this.
- Openness - We will act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information will not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for so doing.
- Honesty - We will be truthful.
- Leadership - We will exhibit these principles in our own behaviour. We will actively promote and robustly support the principles and be willing to challenge poor behaviour wherever it occurs.

The Board expects Members, Trustees and Governors to promote equality and diversity in all aspects of governance and when carrying out any functions.

Members, Trustees and Governors will promote and practice the values of the Trust and behave in ways that exemplify effective governance.

Decisions will be informed, rigorous and transparent in the way that they are taken, making use of good quality information, guidance and support and ensuring that an effective risk management system is in operation.
