

Technician Subscription Package 22/23

With recent changes to the science curriculum now embedded in most schools and colleges, challenges still remain in maximising the enjoyment, engagement and success of learners. This course recognises the pivotal role that technical support staff play and provides the opportunity to meet, discuss and share good practice.

Meeting 1 – 4.10.22 from 13.30-15.00

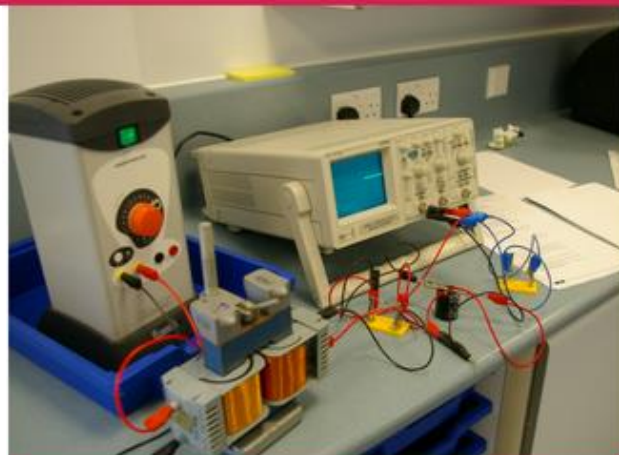

Meeting 2 – 7.3.22 from 08.00 -15.00

Meeting 3 – 09.5.22 from 13.30-15.00

Conference date – 13.7.23 09.30-15.30

Outcomes

- receive updates and share current best practice
- consider ways in which technical support for science departments can be optimised
- establish a working brief for the network
- identify future training needs

90% of those asked about CPD in Science Learning Partnerships said they had shared the learning from their CPD with colleagues and that this had an impact on their practice
